

Dental Lab Inside

"Dental Lab Inside" is the podcast for dental technicians with great passion for the craft. Once a month Dan Krammer, a studied dental technician and experienced journalist himself, speaks with dental technicians and tries to find out some insides – what inspires them, what are they doing different and why are they burning for their job?

Dental Lab inside has a loyal and continuous increasing fan base.

A new episode of Dental Lab Inside – the dental technician podcast will be published every third Wednesday in a month on quintessence-publishing.com as well as on Apple Podcasts, Spotify and nearly everywhere, where podcasts are available. Further podcast formats are under way.
